

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY CELL 2018-2019

REPORT

EOC tries to raise awareness regarding social issues amongst the students and help to create an enabling and non-discriminative environment for the disadvantaged groups .

Throughout the year the Cell organized various awareness programmes for the student community to this effect.

- Niharika, A gender sensitisation program was coordinated by the cell in association with college union. Dr.Priya Varghese, writer and known orator working as Asst.professor in sree kerela varma college, Thrissur was the chief resource person. She spoke on the need of having gender parity and briefly analysed the sociopolitical scenario. Staff advisor Dr.Jeeja Tharakan spoke of inclusive growth and the stages of women empowerment. Poetry recital and discussion followed the main events.
- In tie up with Social Justice Department, Mazhavillu :A Transgender sensitisation program was organised on 30th November 2018.The program was inaugurated by Ms.Sulakshana, District social justice officer. Pinky Vishal working as makeup artist in the movie industry narrated her experiences as a transgender. Experts from the department of social justice conscientized the student body on the rights of the trans-genders and the laws framed to them. Painting and Quiz competitions were also arranged with gender as theme and prizes were handed out to the winners.
- Ms.Rajitha and Ms.Saina, faculty of commerce department coordinated the competitions.
- The cell continues to give emphasis to the deprived groups and offers learning programs so as to create space for them in the mainstream. As part of this skill development initiatives are designed. A Certificate Course in Narrative Craft is offered by the Equal Opportunity Cell in collaboration with PG and Research Department of English .The takers of this course are the final year PG English students. This year's course started in September 2018.It intends to enhance the creative potentials of students and by rendering proper training hopes to increase their scope of employability in mass media sector .As majority of the takers of this course are women it also gives impetus to them to opt for content writing or script writing.
- Faculty from the Department and experts in the field handled various sessions . As part of this course a record of the writings of the participants are brought out at the end of the course .After judging the assignments and works grades and certificates are awarded. Equal opportunity cell coordinator Ms.Susan Joshi supervises the creative programs.
