4. Suggestions :

1. Students are largely discontent about the inordinate delay in the conduct of semester-end university examinations and timely publication of results.
2. Results of the improvement examination for the second, third, fourth and fifth semester courses are not published before the final semester examination results. Consequently the benefits of the improvements in marks are of no use to them in securing admissions for higher studies.

5. Follow-up action:

The complaints were discussed in the college council and the Principal was entrusted to represent the same in the scheduled Principals' meeting with the Vice-Chancellor.
